

Subject: Tired of Airplane Noise Ruining your Summer?

Dear Friend,

Now that summer is here, many of our outdoor plans are frequently ruined or disturbed by the roar of overhead jet aircraft. Now we have a tool to deal with this outrageous situation.

This week, the Port Authority (PA) launched an online form for complaining about aircraft noise. The agency started an Internet-based complaint form that allows users to describe in detail the aircraft noise they experience.

The online forms allow users to include information about whether their problem involves aircraft noise, low-flying planes or vibrations caused by aircraft. The time of the noise issue, type of aircraft and which airport was involved, as well as general written comments, can be detailed with the online form.

To access the PA's feedback link (which contains multiple options) click here. To fill out a Noise Complaint Form electronically, click here.

The telephone complaint line, 800-225-1071, and email address, 9-AWA-NoiseOmbudsman@faa.gov, will remain active and available, officials said.

Sincerely,

KEMP HANNON
